Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard aligns with Level 6 of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007.
- Describe the application of the key ethical principle(s) of a religious tradition to an issue* involves:
 - outlining the ethical principle(s) relevant to the issue, including the source of the ethical principles from within the religious tradition
 - outlining how and why the religious tradition applies the ethical principle(s) to the issue
 - providing supporting evidence.

Describe in detail the application of the key ethical principle(s) of a religious tradition to an issue involves:

- making clear points that show the significance of the application of the key ethical principle(s) of a religious tradition to an issue
- providing a range of supporting evidence relevant to the context.

Comprehensively describe the application of the key ethical principle(s) of a religious tradition to an issue involves:

- outlining different perspectives from within the religious tradition of how and why the ethical principle(s) are applied to the issue
- describing wider implications of the application of the key ethical principle(s) of a religious tradition to an issue
- using a wide range of supporting evidence relevant to the context.

- 3 Religious tradition means a world religion, or a division of a world religion, or an indigenous religion.
- 4 A world religion is a religious belief system that is generally recognised as having independent status from any other religion. Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism are examples of world religions.
- 5 Supporting evidence, where it relates specifically to beliefs or principles of a religious tradition, is obtained from authoritative sources within the religious tradition.
- 6 Ethical principles of a religious tradition refer to codes of behaviour considered to be normative.
- 7 Sources of key ethical principles within a religious tradition include:
- Buddhism: the Five Precepts, the Vinaya
 - Islam: the Qur'an, the Hadith
 - Judaism: the Hebrew Scriptures, the Talmud
 - Hinduism: the Four Varnas, Ashramas
 - Christianity: the Bible, creedal statements, Conciliar statements.
- 8 An issue may be one, or a combination of:
- social, eg death penalty
 - personal, eg individual moral decisions
 - environmental, eg carbon emissions
 - political, eg "just war" theory, foreign aid
 - economic, eg fair trade.
